

So here's the bottom line. If you are pro-choice but actually care about our Constitution, you should advocate that Roe be overturned. Even if you believe that government should not regulate abortion and want it to remain available, why Constitutionalize this policy position? Roe v. Wade was a ridiculous attempt at a legal opinion. Planned Parenthood v. Casey was no different. I have not yet heard any rational argument for why our Constitution should take any position on abortion at all (some on my own side argue that the 14th Amendment should protect the unborn, I disagree). Roe never had and still does not have any grounding in the Constitutional text, intent, or structure. So let's overturn it and return this issue to the people.

UPDATE: Here's another fascinating argument for why Roe should be overturned-it has been bad for Democrats!
